

To us a Child of Royal Birth

For Choir and Brass Quartet

(words by Charles Wesley-1707-1788)

Michel Rondeau
July 6th-7th, 2005

Allegro (♩ = circa 110)

The musical score is arranged in two systems. The first system contains four staves for the brass quartet: Trumpet in C 1, Trumpet in C 2, Trombone, and Bass Trombone. Each staff begins with a dynamic marking of mf. The second system contains four staves for the choir: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The Soprano, Alto, and Tenor staves are currently empty, while the Bass staff contains a whole rest in the first measure. The score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb).

Musical notation for C Tpt. 1, C Tpt. 2, Tbn., and B. Tbn. staves. The notation includes a treble clef for the trumpets and a bass clef for the trombones, with a key signature of one flat and a 2/4 time signature. The first measure of each staff contains a melodic line, followed by rests in the subsequent measures.

Musical notation for vocal staves S, A, T, and B. The notation includes a treble clef for the soprano, alto, and tenor, and a bass clef for the bass. The lyrics are: "To us a Child of Royal birth, Heir of the promises, is given; a Child of Royal birth, Heir of the promises, is given; a Child of Royal birth, Heir of the promises, is given;". The dynamic marking mf is present at the beginning of each vocal line.
