The first system of music consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The tempo is marked 'Largo'. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The second system continues the musical piece. The vocal line includes the lyrics 'Pious Orgies' and 'Pious Airs'. The piano accompaniment continues with its characteristic rhythmic patterns, providing a harmonic and rhythmic foundation for the vocal melody.

The third system of music includes the lyrics 'decent sorrow', 'decent prayers', and 'will t the Lord af_cend and'. The vocal line is clearly defined against the piano accompaniment, with the lyrics placed directly below the notes.

The fourth system concludes the piece with the lyrics 'move his pity his pity and regain his love' and the word 'Ficus' at the end. The vocal line ends with a fermata, and the piano accompaniment provides a final harmonic resolution.
