2

May we behold thy glory shine,
With gentle beams of love divine;
And hear thy secret voice proclaim
The various wonders of thy name.

3

If feeble nature faint t'endure
A voice so sweet, a ray so pure;
Its dissolution would delight,
While death would wear a form so bright.

4

Death shall unveil that world above,
Where the dear children of thy love,
Attempered all to heavenly day,
Bear, and reflect th' immediate ray.
