TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

GEORGE

Prince of WALES.

THE Approbation Your Royal Highness has been pleas'd to shew of our CHURCH-SERVICE by Your constant Attendance therein, and serious Attention thereto, has encouraged me most Humbly to beg Your Protection on the Behalf of the following Performances. I have endeavour'd, as far as in me lies, to adapt the Musick to the Words so, as to excite in the Hearers a Spirit of Devotion suitable to the several Occasions thereof, in Our Addresses to GOD in the most solemn Acts of Prayer and Thanksgiving.

The Honour and Happiness of having these my Endeavours accepted with Favour by Your Royal Highness, may be a Means of Raising in others a Desire of Excelling in a Science that will be always improving under the Influence of Royal Protection and Encouragement.

That Your Royal Highness may long continue to be the Patron of useful Knowledge, to the Joy and Comfort of these Kingdoms, is the sincere and most hearty Prayer of,

Your Royal Highness's

Most Dutiful Servant,

WILLIAM CROFT.

Handwritten musical score for a piece titled "The Pit". The score is written on five staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the staves, and the music is in a common time signature (C). The lyrics are: "lest I be like unto them unto them if go down to the", "them unto them that go down to the pit", "lest I be like unto them if go down to the", "them unto them that go down to the pit", and "like unto them that go down to the pit". The music features various note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. There are also some decorative flourishes and a final cadence. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 below the notes. The score is written in ink on aged paper.

Handwritten musical score for the hymn "Lest I Be Like unto Them that Go down to the Pit". The score is written on six staves, with the first two staves for the Soprano and Alto parts, and the remaining four staves for the Tenor and Bass parts. The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the staves, with some words in italics. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a key signature change to G minor (two flats) for the final measure.

The musical score is written for a voice and piano. The voice part is in a single melodic line, while the piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The lyrics are written in a cursive script, often with decorative flourishes. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals. There are also some numerical figures (4 3, 4, 4 3, 6, #, 6, 7) and a sharp sign (#) that appear to be part of the musical notation or performance instructions.

Psalms 30th

A handwritten musical score for a hymn titled "Heavineſs may endure". The score is written on ten staves, organized into three systems of four staves each. The first system contains the main melody and accompaniment. The second system includes a section marked "slow" and features more complex rhythmic patterns. The third system introduces a "Chorus" section with the lyrics "but joy but jo - - y but joy". The notation includes various musical symbols such as clefs, time signatures, notes, rests, and accidentals. The handwriting is in cursive, typical of 18th-century manuscript notation. The lyrics are written below the corresponding staves.

Handwritten musical score for the hymn "We will Rejoice and be Glad in it". The score is written on eight staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the staves, with some words in italics. The music features a variety of note values, including eighth, sixteenth, and thirty-second notes, as well as rests. The final staff includes a series of numbers (6, 6, 4, 6, 6, 4, 3) written below the notes, likely indicating fingerings or a specific musical technique. The overall style is that of a handwritten manuscript, with clear notation and legible handwriting.

Psalm 128

The musical score is written for a vocal soloist and organ. It consists of 14 staves. The first three staves are for the vocal soloist, with lyrics written below the notes. The organ accompaniment is divided into two parts: the right hand (treble clef) and the left hand (bass clef). The organ part includes a 'Loud Organ right hand' section. The score includes various musical notations such as clefs, key signatures, time signatures, and fingerings. The lyrics are in Latin and English, and the music is in a 19th-century style.
