The musical score is written for a Bass voice part. It begins with a large, ornate initial 'S' in the first staff. The music is written in a style typical of 16th or 17th-century liturgical books, with square notes and a single clef. The lyrics are in Latin and are written below the staves. The first staff contains the lyrics 'Tephanus seruus dei quem lapidabant iudei'. The second staff contains 'vidit celos apertos,'. The third staff contains 'vidit celos apertos'. The fourth staff contains 'vidit, & introiuit, beatus homo cui celi patebunt be-'. The fifth staff contains 'atus homo cui celi patebunt.'.
