The musical score consists of two systems. The first system features a piano accompaniment with a right-hand part in treble clef and a left-hand part in bass clef, both in a key of two sharps (D major). The piano part is highly rhythmic, with the right hand playing sixteenth-note patterns and the left hand playing eighth-note patterns. The second system introduces a vocal line in a soprano or alto clef, with lyrics in Latin. The lyrics are: "per et in sae- cula saecu- lo- rum, a- men, in sae- men, in sae- et nunc et sem- per et in sae- cula saecu- lo- rum, a- men, a- men, a- men, a- sem- per et in sae- cula sae- cu- lo- rum, a- men, et nunc et". The vocal line is written in a single staff with a soprano clef. The piano accompaniment continues throughout the vocal line, providing a rhythmic and harmonic foundation.
