KIND, KIND AND GENTLE IS SHE.

Written by Gabriel H. Barbour,

Composed by W. C. Peters.

Kind, kind and gentle is she, Kind is my Ma-ry; The tender blossom o' the tree Can ne'er compare wi' Ma---ry.

Her brow is fair as win---ter's snow, Her cheeks wi' mo---dest ro-----ses glow, And dove--like glan--ces sweet--ly flow, Fra' out the e'en of Ma-ry. Sae kind, kind and gentle is she, Kind is my Ma-ry; The tender blossom o' the tree, Nae purer is than Ma--ry.

SECOND VERSE.

Oh shouldst thou meet some haugh--ty lass, Her head wi' pride and fol-----ly toss; Ne'er look on her, but let her pass, For oh, she's not my Ma-ry. Sae kind, kind and gentle is she, Kind is my Ma-ry; The tender blossom o' the tree, Nae purer is than Ma---ry.

THIRD VERSE.

But see you one, wi' mo-----dest air, Be---deck'd wi' beau--ties soft and rare; That makes your heart feel sweet-ly sair, Oh weel ye ken, 'tis Ma-ry. Sae kind, kind and gentle is she, Kind is my Mary; The tender blossom o' the tree, Nae purer is than Ma-ry.

4

And when you come to know her mind,
 In nature's purest lore enshrined;
 Gang through the world, ye'll never find,
 Anither like my Mary.

Sae kind, kind and gentle is she,
 Kind is my Mary;
 The tender blossom o' the tree,
 Nae purer is than Mary.
