

WAGNER & M^o GUIGAN'S LITH.

THE ADIEU

N^o 4, FRANKLIN PLACE, PHILA.

WORDS BY

THOMAS J. DIEHL

ADAPTED TO A MELODY OF

P. HERR

AND RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO

Miss J. C. MAY

BY

J. A. GETZE.

Philadelphia, LEE & WALKER, N^o 162 Chesnut St.
SUCCESSORS TO GEO. WILLIG.

NEW YORK.
WM. HALL & SON.

BOSTON.
GEO. P. REED.

NEW ORLEANS.
WM. T. MAYO.

THE ADIEU

Published by LEE & WALKER 162 Chesnut St.
Successors to GEO. WILLG.

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1850 by Lee & Walker in the Clerks Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

VO CE.

Andantino cantabile.

8va

PIANO FORTE.

p There's not a sound can

rallent: p a tempo.

chill the heart, And break the dreams, and break the dreams, o'er which 'twill dwell— Can cres.

bid all joy, And hope de - part, Like that sad word fare -

cres.

well. When broken hopes, ex-pir-ing lie, — And

p

fa - ded, is the magic spell — There's not a tear can dim the eye, Like wrung by sad farewell, fare - well...

sva

p svammmzz ritard:

pp

When leav - ing child - hood's sun - ny home, Each flow'ry field, each flow'ry field, each bloom - ing dell, Ere wand - rer's on life's cres.

path we roam, We look a last fare - well - There's not a sound can wring the heart, with sor-row, more than tongue can tell - When lo - ving friends, for - ev - er part, - Like that sad word farewell, fare-well. - rallent: e perdendosi.

