Music by
ROBERT CONINGSBY CLARKE.

The wild March winds sweeping hill and plain,
And the sower scatt'ring the rich young grain,
God send the sun and rain!
etc.

The Blind Ploughman.

Set my hands upon the plough,
My feet upon the sod:
Turn my face towards the east,
And praise be to God!

Ev'ry year the rains do fall,
The seeds they stir and spring;
Ev'ry year the spreading trees
Shelter birds that sing.

From the shelter of your heart,
Brother, drive out sin,
Let the little birds of faith
Come and nest therein.

God has made His sun to shine
On both you and me;
God, who took away my eyes,
That my soul might see!
