The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often beamed together. There are several slurs and ties across the staves.

The second system of music is similar to the first, with two staves. It includes the lyrics "ri - tar - dan - do" written above the notes. A piano dynamic marking (p) is present at the beginning of the system.

The third system of music continues the piece with two staves. The lyrics "ri - tar - dan - do" are repeated above the notes.

The fourth system of music consists of two staves, continuing the intricate rhythmic and melodic patterns of the previous systems.

The fifth system of music consists of two staves, maintaining the complex musical texture.

The sixth and final system of music on the page consists of two staves, concluding the piece with a final cadence.
