

words by
W. B. Yeats

THERE ARE SEVEN THAT PULL THE THREAD
from "Grania and Diarmid"

Edward Elgar, Op. 42

Andante.

p Quasi Recit.

There are seven that pull the thread—

pp pp subito pp

Ped. * Ped. * Ped. * Ped.

There is one un-der the waves, There is one where the winds are cresc. ad lib. rit.

pp rit.

* Ped. *

wave— There is one in the old grey house Where the dew, where the

pp a tempo dolciss.

colla parte ppp

Ped. *

dew is made before dawn— One lives in the house of the sun,

rit. a tempo

rit. pp

Ped. * Ped. * Ped. * Ped. *

espress.

And one in the house of the moon, And one lies un-der the

col. 8

pp

Ped. * Ped. * Ped. * Ped. *

dim.

boughs of the gol-den ap-ple tree, And one spinner is lost.

Recit. pp

p. dim.

pp

Ped. * Ped. * Ped. *

Adagio. m. con espress.

Ho-li-est, ho-li-est seven Put all your pow'r on the thread— That I've

dim. e rit.

pp

rit.

Ped. * Ped. * Ped. * Ped.

pp ad lib.

spun in the house to night.—

rit.

pp

8

* Ped. * Ped. *