

THE BLUE BIRD.

J.R. Penniman Del.

COMPOSED BY HIS FRIEND & PUPIL.

Miss Mary B. Bush.

By O. SHAW.

sva -

Sweet bird, thou tun'st our hearts to love, Thy loco.

pres-ence al-ways pleasures bring; Thy pres-ence al ways pleasures bring;
sva -

1870-48

We bid thee welcome
loco.

to the grove, Thou lovely har-bin-ger of Spring.

Thou lov-ly har-bin-ger of Spring. Thou lovely har-bin-ger of Spring.
Cres. f

When near the window safely perched,
With sweetest notes we hear thee sing;
Rejoicing at thy near approach,
We hail thee har-binger of Spring.

When winter slowly quits the scene,
Thou com'st the first on rapid wing,
And in thy train the beautiful green,
Which proves thee har-binger of Spring.

Engraved & Printed N<sup>o</sup> 6 Franklin Street Boston.

M 1
.58
II Animals - birds

LL-SSM-2-015-0030